

2009 Fox McCarthy Water Wise Award

The 2009 Fox McCarthy Water Wise Award will recognize an outstanding project or program implemented by a water user in Georgia.

Eligibility Requirements

- Water conservation project or program
- Implemented in Georgia
- Implemented by a water user
- Implemented within the last five years

Submittal Requirements

- Nomination form, unbound to allow duplication
- One to two page double spaced narrative of water conservation project or program, unbound to allow duplication
- Supporting materials may be attached
- Entries must be postmarked by December 15th, 2009

Award Evaluation Criteria

- Planning – Information related to cost/benefit analysis, objectives, and strategies
- Execution – Level of resources allocated for project or program, difficulties encountered and overcome
- Effectiveness – Results in terms of success measurement (amount of water saved, environmental benefits, cost savings) and extent to which objectives were met
- Innovation – Originality of project or program
- Transferability – Similar projects or programs could be implemented by other water users
- Assurance of Longevity – Efforts to ensure project or program has a lasting impact

Nomination Form

Contact Person Name _____

Project or Program Name _____

Organization Name _____

Address _____

Phone _____ Fax _____ E-mail _____

Send entries before December 15th to the GWWC Awards Committee Chair: Deatre Denion
c/o Georgia Department of Community Affairs - 60 Executive Park South, NE Atlanta, GA 30329

Phone: 912-704-4136 E-mail: deatre.denion@dca.ga.gov.